MedRec

Processes Card Sorting

HCP prescribe medicine to Patient

- The possibility to share / view / edit the patient medical record in real time
- A reports archive and management solution
- View / edit / delete the drugs lists
- A real time support and update of all medical reports / records / results
- The medical staff can comment on any medical record or document
- When changing the patients prescrigtion we have to note the dates, else we would have no idea about the patients current medicines
- Doctors can view the patients medicine intake and prescription
- A list of prescribed drugs and medicine (with any relevant notes or directions)
- Prescriptions filter system based on the doctors information
- Patients can manage their medical intake, and set reminders to help them manage it

HCP Schedule an appointment

- An in-app file system to manage patients documents
- A notification system to stay updated about any records
- Easy access to patients contact information
- A structured booking system that can be linked to any medical record
- Create / view / edit / delete / move to archive any item in the calendar
- Possibility to manage the team documents as well as make update on them
- Ability to manage other staff members booking and agenda (after being given the access)
- Ability to give steps for the users to follow, directions and notes that may help them
- Billing information and statistics, processes, including insurance
- Ability to add special note about an appointment
- Insurance process system (add — delete — edit — validate — decline)
- A search system to give the medical staff a fast way to find the needed information about each patient
- A reports archive and management solution
- Adding / removing tasks from the patients calendar and processes lists
- An active medical record area that includes upcoming reservations
- Organized way to provide the patients with steps, notes, directions, in each of the processes (shared when needed)
- The health care providers can easily view documents in their patients medical record
- Health care providers can archive specific data (that is available to them), so it can be used in the future and to be saved as backup
- Multiple types of appointment that the medical staff can chose to preform (appointments groups)
- Advanced search across all patients and all documents available
- The medical staff can comment on any medical record or document
- Health care providers can label records for internal referencing
- Help with filling the forms (giving access to family members, so they can edit the profile)
- View Information about the billing data, and updating them if needed
- View — Add — Edit insurance according to each medical record
- Manage multiple medical records / documents in the same account, (for family members)
- The possibility to ask for an in-house appointment or lab test
- The ability to share the medical record using QR code (for the patients with no technological background)
- Patients can cancel / reschedule appointments with a simple click

Patient walk-in for the consultation

- Easy access to patients contact information
- Possibility to manage the team documents as well as make update on them
- Easy search for records, patients, notes, processes
- Ability to give steps for the users to follow, directions and notes that may help them
- The possibility to choose the work period and share it with all patients and staff members
- The health care provider can create a list of tasks for each medical procedure
- All data in the record can be modified by the medical staff including personal data of the patients when access is given
- "All in one place" record to lower the time waste in preparing the documents, upload them once, use them forever approach
- Notifications system for important appointments
- View — Add — Edit insurance according to each medical record
- A good structured document management system (folders > file system)
- Patients can create many medical records to manage their documents as well as their family's
- The ability to upload scanned documents for the already available records
- Chose the visibility of each document or of the whole medical record based on the circumstances
- The ability to share the medical record using QR code (for the patients with no technological background)

HCP perfoms the diagnosis

- A notification system to stay updated about any records
- Easy access to patients contact information
- Appointment calendar to manage bookings
- Easy search for records, patients, notes, processes
- The ability to modify any record in the system (higher access for managers)
- Ability to give steps for the users to follow, directions and notes that may help them
- A search system to give the medical staff a fast way to find the needed information about each patient
- The possibility to share / view / edit the patient medical record in real time
- A reports archive and management solution
- Adding / removing tasks from the patients calendar and processes lists
- An active medical record area that includes upcoming reservations
- View / edit / delete the drugs lists
- The health care providers can easily view documents in their patients medical record
- Health care providers can archive specific data (that is available to them), so it can be used in the future and to be saved as backup
- A real time support and update of all medical reports / records / results
- Advanced search across all patients and all documents available
- The medical staff can comment on any medical record or document
- Doctors can share a list of steps to follow depending on their medical condition
- Health care providers can label records for internal referencing
- Doctors can view the patients medicine intake and prescription
- Updates about medical conditions (Notifications?) (Tags system for the medical conditions)
- The possibility to record audio for both doctors and patients for better language accessibility
- Patients can keep notes and make them, to help them with the future processes

Medical Record Closed

- Insurance process system (add — delete — edit — validate — decline)
- Billing information and statistics, processes, including insurance
- Health care providers can generate payments bills according to the patients medical expenses
- The possibility to share / view / edit the patient medical record in real time
- A reports archive and management solution
- The medical staff can comment on any medical record or document
- View Information about the billing data, and updating them if needed
- Patients can archive any medical record, (when archived the medical staff still have access to it)

Doctor issues a lab test request

- Ability to give steps for the users to follow, directions and notes that may help them
- The possibility to share / view / edit the patient medical record in real time
- The solution can provide a list of all available labs in the area (chosen by the medical staff)

Patient book a lab test appointment

- The possibility to share / view / edit the patient medical record in real time
- Help with filling the forms (giving access to family members, so they can edit the profile)
- The possibility to ask for an in-house appointment or lab test
- Each test that needs to be done has to have a description of the needed files and show what is missing in the medical record
- each record contains a place for the medical test to be done
- Possibility to request a medical staff member to assist with the lab process
- Family members can organize the test results if needed
- Advanced search system to help with finding any needed documents

Lab performs the medical test

- The possibility to share / view / edit the patient medical record in real time
- A real time support and update of all medical reports / records / results
- Notifications system for important appointments
- Patients can request medical lab tests directly from the lab with simple form, they can also request an upload request in case it's not done yet

Lab delivers the Test results

- The possibility to share / view / edit the patient medical record in real time
- A notifications system for when the tests are ready to be picked from the lab
- Chose the visibility of each test result

HCP answer the Patient's questions

- Appointment calendar to manage bookings
- Easy access to patients contact information
- Possibility to manage the team documents as well as make update on them
- Easy search for records, patients, notes, processes
- Ability to give steps for the users to follow, directions and notes that may help them
- A reports archive and management solution
- A search system to give the medical staff a fast way to find the needed information about each patient
- Request any additional documents to be uploaded in case they are missing from the medical record
- An active medical record area that includes upcoming reservations
- Organized way to provide the patients with steps, notes, directions, in each of the processes (shared when needed)
- The health care providers can easily view documents in their patients medical record
- Advanced search across all patients and all documents available
- View Information about the billing data, and updating them if needed
- View — Add — Edit insurance according to each medical record
- A step by step guide created by the medical staff in order to help the patients with the lab test process (if needed)
- Patients can keep notes and make them, to help them with the future processes

Patients contact the HCP

- Patients can grant medical record access for any person using the MedRed
- Patients can recieve notifications about updates in their medical records, including simple descriptions about their conditions
- Patients can make reminders in any medical record, to help them manage the time and required documents
- The patient can request data deletion from any health care provider
- Easy access to doctors information and localization
- View available doctors in your area that are in office
- A way to find doctors near the area they live in (this can include a rating system to make for a better informed decision)
- The possibility to record audio for both doctors and patients for better language accessibility
- A localization system to provide the patients with a precised location
- Request any additional documents to be uploaded in case they are missing from the medical record
- Health care providers can delete patients data upon request